UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: United States v. Albert Foozailov
Docket No. 17-CR-262 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

Mr. Foozailov was sentenced by Your Honor on October 10, 2019. He is currently on Supervised Release, residing with his family in Queens, New York. I wrote to the Court on July 11, 2022 seeking permission for Mr. Foozailov to travel to Israel. Your Honor denied that request, with leave to renew, asking me to state whether the Government and/or the Probation Office consents to the application.

As stated in my previous letter to the court, the reason for this request to travel is for Mr. Foozailov to visit his mother Raya Foozailov who resides there. Mr. Foozailov's mother has been ill for many years (see ECF document 540-1, pp. 20,21). Mr. Foozailov would like to see his mother, as he has not been able to travel since his arrest in this matter in 2017. Mr. Foozailov was not able to visit his father Yosef Foozailov since that date as well and unfortunately he passed away on October 1, 2020, while Mr. Foozailov was incarcerated. As stated previously Raya Foozailov is in poor health and Mr. Foozailov is afraid if he has to wait for his Supervised Release to be over, it may be too late see her. If approved for travel, the date of his departure from New York would be August 20, 2022 and the date of his return would be September 13, 2022.

As per the courts instructions, I have spoken to the the Attorney for the Government A.U.S.A. Andrew Thomas, and he has told me that the Government would defer to Probation on this request. I have spoken to Mr. Foozailov's Probation Officer from Supervised Release, U.S.P.O. Kristen K. Mahraj, and she has told me that Probation would object to this request.

In light of Mr. Foozailov's mother's poor health, notwithstanding the Government's and Probation's objections in this matter, it is requested that Mr. Foozailov be allowed to travel from New York to Israel on August 20, 2022 and return to New York on September 13, 2022.

Thank you once again for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
